A. P. Abbott & Co.HEAD HIM OFF!

Stephen Skelly Wanted on Charge of Robbery.

St. Albans, Jan. 16.—The sheriff's office here would like very much to learn the whereabouts of Stephen Skelly, aged 22, an recently arrived Englishman, who yesterday morning stole $30 in cash from the bureau drawer of his employer, George Ploof, a farmer of Sheldon Springs, and made a safe getaway. Skelly was a tramp of fair education and appearance and lived out of Ploof about three weeks ago. He was treated as one of the family and soon had the run of things. Early yesterday morning he found out that Ploof had some money and where it was, and when Ploof was busy elsewhere Skelly ransacked the bureau, got the wad and lit out across lots for this metropolis. He was tracked to this city, where he hung around Gilmore's livery stable for an hour or more and then, with a local tough named English, disappeared. It is believed that they jumped a freight train and are heading toward Rutland or Bennington, where English hails from.
